

Chet, a loveable bumbler with no long term aspirations, dies unexpectedly and discovers that he was put on Earth for an important reason. What was it? On his first day in the afterlife he oversleeps, loses important papers, spills coffee on his clean shirt, and has to be taken aside for help from a special angel. The irony is that he is a very special soul with amazing untapped powers. The Almighty, who prefers to be called The Chief, plays golf, watches football, and loves Girl Scout Thin Mints, has plans for Chet and is losing patience with Chet's pace. Chet needs a lot of help, but it's no guarantee that he will complete his assignment.

If a Chet doesn't know you that well, then it is in your best interest to always be polite to him. Do not expect to insult a Chet.
