

My Mother, a farmers wife, had many jobs to do on our family farm. She helped my Father with chicken chores, barn chores, milking, gardening her fruits and vegetables which she used to feed my four brothers and sisters and me, lawn care...I never realized until her elder years, just all my Mother accomplished! She crafted patch work quilts, croched doilies and bedspreads, learned to knit and knitted sweaters and jackets for all of us, she canned her garden produce, and she collected...Recipes!After she died, I was blessed to inherit her enormous recipe collection! I dont remember her baking and cooking using this collection, but I treasure every recipe I inherited and vowed to put them into a recipe book, in her honor, and naming it Recipes Mama Couldnt Toss. I hope you use the recipes included in this Book Number 1, Savory and Sugary. I will be publishing different recipes for Book Number 2 in the future, then Book Number 3, and so on until I have recorded all the good food that Mama prepared! Watch for them when you visit your Kindle Store!
