

For over a century, the unforgettable tale of the adventures of Mowgli, the fearless man-cub, has delighted both children and adults. Filled with excitement, this superbly adapted radio dramatization from the BBC -- world renowned for their excellence in radio programming -- will captivate listeners of all ages, sweeping them deep into the jungles of India with a full cast featuring the richly feline voice of Eartha Kitt, as well as a stirring musical score, and authentic jungle sound effects. The Jungle Book Raised by wolves, young Mowgli is taught the law of the jungle by his animal friends: old Baloo the wise brown bear, and Bagheera, the sleek, black Panther. Slowly, Mowgli learns the language and ways of the jungle animals and his childhood seems quite idyllic. But looming in the darkness of the jungle is the cunning and sinister tiger, Shere Khan, who silently watches Mowgli, awaiting his moment to pounce. Marvelous and magical, this lush production of Kipling's enduring classic will enthrall every listener whether they're listening for the first or the fiftieth time.
